

PDF Sentence Navigator test document.

This is the first sentence on page one. Here is a second sentence!

Does keyboard navigation work? It certainly should.

A longer sentence spans several words to verify multi-line highlighting behaves as expected.

Dr. Smith paid $3.50 for item no. 4; tricky punctuation lives here.

Welcome to the second page of the sample file.

Press Tab to advance and Shift+Tab to go back.

The highlight should follow the active sentence and scroll it into view.

This sentence continues to the next page to test cross-page boundaries and confirm the highlight maps to both pages.

Zooming with Ctrl and plus or minus must keep the highlight aligned.
This is the final sentence of the document.
